

LOST CITY

MALBEC 2018 MENDOZA, ARGENTINA

BACKGROUND

Tales of cities made of silver beckoned early explorers to South America. Although the quest for this silver utopia continues, your search for a perfectly balanced Malbec ends here.

WINE REGION

Mendoza is Argentina's most well-known wine region. Located within the larger Cuyo region, Mendoza vineyards are in the high desert foothills of the Andes Mountains. The region is known for some of the highest altitude vineyards in the world - many are 4,000 feet + above sea level.

TASTING NOTES

This Mendoza Malbec has complex and bold aromas of blueberry pie, stewed blackberries, grilled plums, and purple flowers. The palate is full-bodied with notes of sun-kissed berries, ripe plum, vanilla tobacco, and a velvety finish.

SUGGESTED PAIRINGS

Bison Burger with Chimichurri · Beef Empanadas
